

Company-branded swag

Deliver an end-to-end reward experience that delights employees with award options that reflect your unique employer brand

Our Reward Marketplace allows you to add quality, on-demand and branded company merchandise, ensuring that employees can choose the size, color and item just right for them. Each item is shipped directly to the desired address - at no extra charge - no matter where your employees are located in the United States.

Connect your people to your company brand with ease through:

Exclusivity

Feature rewards that only your business can deliver

Expanded Choice

Add swag alongside e-gift cards, Amazon items, charitable giving and custom rewards

Flexibility

Redeem with points or dollars, or even employee debit/credit card

Transparency

Each swag item purchase price includes taxes and free shipping!

Our swag solution includes:

A full range of gift options to delight employees

Free shipping - anywhere in the United States

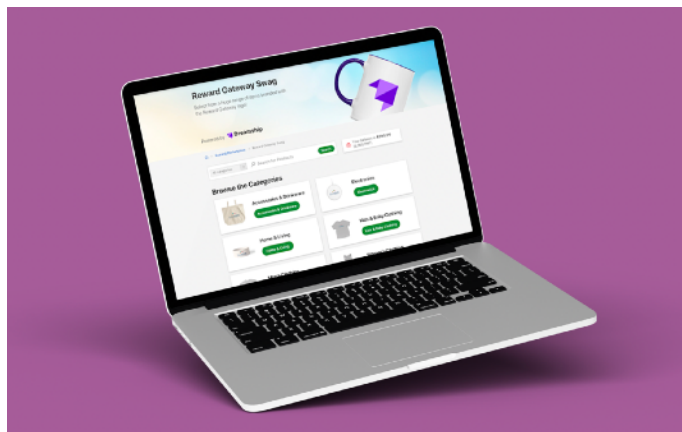

A turnkey experience for managers to highlight important moments by shipping directly to new starters, new parents and more

Zero admin! All set up, logistics and reporting are included

End-to-end simplicity with no admin required

You provide a company logo and our Reward Gateway team will do the rest. All administration – from set up, to shipping, to delivery and reporting – is managed for you. Our platform provides the simplest way branded company merchandise can be presented to your people, no matter where they work.

Celebrate life moments with employees

Remind employees that they are part of a caring organization by celebrating special events in their lives. Send a logoed baby onesie to the new mom or dad. Welcome the new joiner with a hoodie or sweatshirt delivered right to their home. There are so many ways to delight your people and help them feel even more part of the team.

Wow your people with the Reward Marketplace

Company-branded swag adds a wow factor to our standard Reward Marketplace reward categories, which include hundreds of instant e-gift cards, our seamless integration with Amazon, as well as charitable giving options.
