

Employee Discounts

An unbeatable employee discounts programme that saves your people money

Reward Gateway offers the largest employee discounts scheme in the world. We use our unmatched buying power and unbeatable savings at hundreds of retailers to help extend your employees' income. Employee discounts are a simple way to bring better employee benefits to your employees, without the expense of a company wide pay rise. Using our employee discounts at your organisation can give employees significant monthly savings from everyday purchases to special items like gifts for Christmas.

Our employee discounts programme can help you:

Deliver

benefits to show appreciation for staff

Save

your employees money on everyday purchases

Boost

your Employee Value Proposition

Our employee discounts solution includes:

Easy to use, transparent discounts

In-store and online Instant Vouchers

Instant Reloadable Cards

Generous employee Cashback

Employer-branded mobile app for instant access to discounts

From groceries to fashion, travel and more, your employees can start saving more money right away, on things they're already buying.

The best discounts, the best value. Always.

Our employee discounts programme gives your people access to savings at hundreds of their favourite retailers. We pride ourselves on our offers being genuine and transparent, so you won't find any catches or charges, just great savings. We offer a range of ways to save that suit your people's shopping behaviours, maximising their savings potential however they shop.

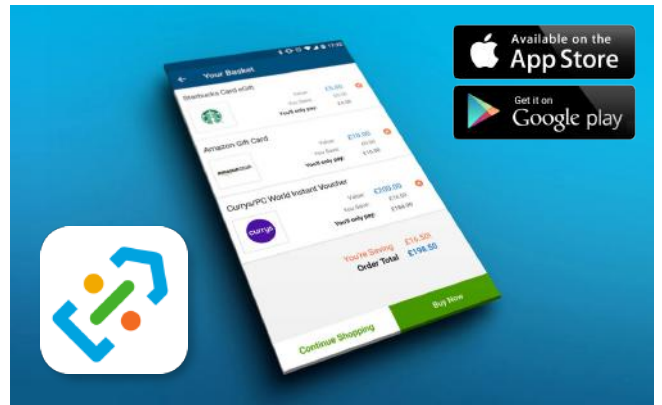

Increase engagement with a user-friendly mobile app

Available on iPhone and Android, employees can access their employee discounts with a mobile app which is tailored to match your employer branding. They can access Instant Vouchers, Reloadable Cards and Cashback offers for a complete online and in-store shopping experience on mobile. Plus, no matter where the purchase starts – desktop, smartphone or tablet – your employees will be able to finish it via an intelligent shopping basket.

Customise your scheme quickly and easily

We'll help you tailor the offers on your programme to remove conflicts and highlight deals particularly relevant to your workforce. Plus, add in any existing offers you have at no additional cost. Our selection of hundreds of top retailers makes your programme stand out from the competition to improve your EVP for current and future employees.

Prove ROI with real-time analytics

Front-end analytics dashboards track usage and help reveal the impact of your discounts program. Real-time data means you can bring your leadership team tangible results and tie analytics to engagement programs, investments and goals.
